Subject: Ukraine emergency –Selection by chronological order to grant 10 scholarships and 2 collaboration grants reserved to students from Ukraine for the academic year 2021/2022.

Art. 1 – Purpose and recipients

Art. 1.1 – Scholarships

RUFA - Rome University of Fine Arts, following the humanitarian emergency in Ukraine, makes 10 scholarships available for female students from Ukraine who have the university or academic qualifications needed to continue their academic studies.

The Academy reserves the right to select the places available from among the Bachelor and Master of Arts courses active in the academic year 2021/22.

This selection notice will follow the chronological order evaluation procedure, taking into account the arrival of the students at Rome University of Fine Arts - RUFA, until the 10 available scholarships are awarded.

Art.1.2 – Collaboration grants

RUFA - Rome University of Fine Arts, also makes 2 collaboration grants available for students who are recipients of the scholarships referred to in Art. 1.1.

This selection notice will follow the chronological order evaluation procedure. Applications will be taken into consideration in chronological order, until the 2 available collaboration grants are provided.

The assignment of these scholarships will take place following an interview.

Art.2 – Benefits of Scholarships and Collaboration Grants

Art.2.1 – Benefits of the scholarships

The benefits of the scholarships consist of:

- Total exemption from the payment of the annual fee, of the enrollment fee and of the teaching and laboratory operation fee;
- Support services such as orientation and tutoring are also provided.

Art.2.2 – Benefits of the collaboration grants

The grants for the collaboration activities are of Euro 1,000.00 each, personal income taxes excluded.

This remuneration is paid only for the hours actually carried out by the student from April to July included, and is equal to 7.30 euros per hour, according to the work plan agreed with the Manager and signed before the start of the collaboration with the Academy.

The remuneration is paid to the student in monthly installments, upon reaching the scheduled hours, after presenting a letter signed by the person in charge authorizing the payment on the basis of an evaluation of the work of the student in terms of effectiveness, seriousness and discipline.

Art.3 – Admission requirements

To participate it is necessary to:

- Be a ukrainian citizen;
- not be enrolled in another Italian Academy or University during the 2021/2022 academic year;
- have left Ukraine following the recent emergency situation;
- have interrupted one's academic / university studies in Ukraine following the recent emergency situation.

Art.4 – Presentation of the candidacy and awarding criteria

Students who meet the above requirements may send their application to the e-mail address international.students@unirufa.it from the date of publication of this notice.

The selection, in chronological order, involves the evaluation of the date of arrival of the student at the RUFA Academy - Rome University of Fine Arts, as well as the following documents:

- Certification of previous studies (or self-certification);
- Copy of a valid identity document;
- Copy of the presentation, at the Rome Police Headquarters - Immigration Office, of the request for a residence permit in Italy for Temporary Protection pursuant to Article 20 of the TUI containing "Extraordinary reception measures for exceptional events".

The procedure will end when the 10 scholarships and 2 collaboration grants have been awarded.

Art.5 – Acceptance

Each positively assessed candidate will receive a specific communication from international.students@unirufa.it indicating the methods and timing for the acceptance of the scholarship and / or collaboration.
