Crisis in Ukraine – Announcement of selection through an open evaluation procedure for the assignment of n. 3 grants reserved for students from Ukraine for the academic year 2023/2024

Art. 1- Purpose and recipients

RUFA - Rome University of Fine Arts, following the humanitarian emergency in Ukraine, makes 3 scholarships available for students from Ukraine who have the university or academic qualifications needed to continue their academic studies.

Art.2 -Benefits of the scholarships, conditions and delivery mode

2.1 The benefits

Each scholarship entitles the holder to a monthly payment for ten months of an amount of Euro 200 as a reimbursement of expenses.

2.2 Reimbursable expenses

Only expenses incurred for the purchase of food, medicines, personal hygiene products, books and other materials necessary for educational activities, medical examinations, rental fees in Rome, subscriptions to local transport services are considered reimbursable.

2.3 Methods of delivery and accountability

Following evaluation, based on self-certified information through the e-form, the amount of the scholarship (art. 2.1) will be paid monthly and in cash; the attendance is calculated from the start of the 23/24 academic year. Successful students are then required to submit a bimonthly report to access the reimbursements for the following months, under penalty of forfeiture of the scholarship benefits.

To access the funds, students must have attended no less than 80% of the lessons: the attendance is calculated from the moment the winners have been admitted to the courses.

Art.3 – Admission requirements

To participate in the selection it is necessary to:

- Be a Ukrainian citizen;
- Not be enrolled in another University of Academy in Italy for the academic year 2023/2024;
- To have left Ukraine due to the war emergency situation
- to have interrupted one's academic / university course in Ukraine following the war emergency situation.
- To have won the previous selection organized by this Academy and reserved only for Ukrainian students (prot. n. 71/22/D of the 26 of October 2022).

Art.4 - Submission of the application

Students who meet the requirements may apply by filling in all the fields of the appropriate e-form published together with this notice and by sending it by November 9, 2023.

The e-form is available on the page: <https://www.unirufa.it/orientamento/borse-di-studio-e-agevolazioni-economiche/borse-di-studio/>

Students must be fully compliant with the Italian immigration rules and show proof of the permit renewal as soon as it is achieved.

Art.5 – Acceptance

Every positively assessed candidate will receive a specific communication from international.students@unirufa.it indicating the methods and timing for the acceptance of the scholarship.

Art.6 – Treatment of personal data

The personal data provided with the application to participate in the call are treated in compliance with the right to the protection of personal data and the right to preservation of confidentiality and personal identity pursuant to Legislative Decree no. 30 June 2003, n. 196 and subsequent amendments and of the GDPR (EU Regulation 2016/679).

The acquired data are processed exclusively for the obligations related to the implementation of this announcement. The treatment is carried out both by computer systems and in manual form through paper means.

The provision of the requested data is mandatory, and any refusal in communicating them will result in the exclusion from the call for applications.

For the purposes of this announcement and any other consequent and connected activity, RUFA - Rome University of Fine Arts, Via Benaco 2 - 00199 Rome is responsible for the processing of the personal data.
